The Show

The Players

Danny: the coolest kid in school, Danny is a founding member of the T-Birds. His aims in life are looking good, being surrounded by pretty girls and, above all, being cool.

Sandy: new in town, she is a good girl (like Doris Day) but is desperate to fit in with the crowd and find someone to love.

Kenickie: Danny's best friend and leader of the T-Birds, he lives for his car and hanging out with the gang.

Rizzo: top girl in school and leader of the Pink Ladies, she does what she pleases and has a hard shell with a well hidden soft centre.

The T-Birds: Roger, Sonny and Doody may not be the brightest sparks but they know enough to hang with the cool guys, learning a lot about girls along the way.

The Pink Ladies: Jan, Marty and Frenchie make up the Pink Ladies and are all devoted to love and romance. Frenchie longs to be a beautician, while marriage is the ultimate goal for the others.

Vince Fontaine: local radio star and band leader, Vince wows the girls at the school dance.

Miss Lynch: harassed Head Teacher at Rydell High, she struggles to keep order amongst the kids – but is not always successful.

Eugene & Patty: the school nerds, always willing to help the teachers and get everyone organised, are universally disliked by all the 'cool' kids. Patty heads the cheerleading squad and is keen to be Sandy's 'best' friend.

Cha-Cha: a great dancer with a bad reputation, she wins the school dance competition with Danny and distracts him from Sandy.

The Teen Angel: a figment of Frenchie's imagination, he tells her to return to high school as she is not cut out for beauty school.
